

CONTENT CAMP + PODCAMP PHILLY LUNCH OPTIONS

Linda's Cart

4400 Woodland Ave

“Located in Clark Park since the Paleolithic era, Linda has been slinging sandwiches to stressed U*sigh students with unmatched prowess for 20+ years. Offering everything from sandwiches, to chicken nuggets, to gyros there is something on Linda’s menu for everyone.” -Yelp User Bryson V.

Continue on through the park to:

Kung Fu Hoagies

4360 Chester Ave

Vegan hoagies. Vietnamese inspired. Delicious. Ever changing menu. Loved by all of West Philly.

which is right in the midst of:

Clark Park Farmers Market

43rd and Baltimore

Local foods, from all over. More food trucks + carts will be in attendance because of the Clark Park Arts and Music Fest!

Head up Baltimore (west or...to the left) to 4618 to:

Mood Cafe

4618 Baltimore Ave

Mood Cafe offers two staples, Chaat, an eclectic mix of crunchies, mangos, dates, onions, radishes and sauces, as well as the Lassi, a type of smoothie, prepared to your liking. Care to mix your Lassi flavors; Hassan will hook you up.

Or cross Baltimore and head north on 44th Street to:

Honest Tom's Taco Shop

261 S 44th St (44th and Spruce)

Chicken, beef, pork or sweet potato tacos and burritos. Homemade guac. Service w/ a smile. Seating on scenic 44th Street.

Which is right next door to:

Tampopo

269 S 44th St

Noodles, bibimbop, curries, dumplings. Quick and tasty. Plenty of seating and lots of serve yourself free water on tap.

Also next door to:

Lil Pop Shop

265 S 44th St

Gourmet ice cream pops. Just what you need before heading back to Content Camp + PodCamp Philly.

Fancy a scone or cup of tea on your way back?

Whispering Leaves

4615 Woodland Ave

Big on fancy tea. Also has sandwiches. Adorable and quaint.

Or want to pick up a latte for afternoon sessions?

Milk and Honey Market

4425 Baltimore Ave

A selection of sandwiches made behind the counter, or fancy fixings for a Clark Park Picnic (Di Bruno Bros cheeses and meats and bread and crackers.)

See you back at Content Camp + PodCamp Philly for your afternoon sessions at 2:15pm sharp!